

The City College of New York

Division of Interdisciplinary Studies at the Center for Worker Education

ALPHA SIGMA LAMBDA NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY FOR ADULT LEARNERS

The Division of Interdisciplinary Studies is now a member of Alpha Sigma Lambda, the oldest and largest national honor society devoted to the acknowledgement of academic excellence of the non-traditional adult student pursuing higher education. Its mission is to recognize those students who have achieved and maintained high scholastic standards while often facing multiple challenges of family and work.

Student Affairs @ CWE chartered Sigma Alpha Kappa (SAK), its local chapter, in 2015 and held its first induction ceremony in May of the following year. Since 2016, the chapter has inducted 84 students.

MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY

Membership is by invitation only and open to all matriculated students in good standing in the Division of Interdisciplinary Studies at the Center for Worker Education

- students 24 years of age and older seeking full-time or part-time undergraduate degrees
- students who have completed a minimum of 24 CCNY credits
- students who have completed 12 credits or more in Liberal Arts/Sciences. (May include transfer credits to fulfill this requirement)
- students who have earned a cumulative GPA of 3.5 and above

BENEFITS

Benefits include:

- motivation and pride in becoming a member of an elite group who represent academic and leadership excellence
- scholarship opportunities through Alpha Sigma Lambda Adult Education Fund
- a forum for the exchange of ideas on activities and programs for adult students
- a publication of a semi-annual newsletter
- the opportunity to participate in an annual induction ceremony

For more information about membership, contact the chapter counselor: Dr. Sophia Demetriou, sdemetriou@ccny.cuny.edu

For additional information about the honor society, visit the society's website at www.alphasigmalambda.org

