The Ephebic Oath

Lawrence S. Greengrass ’73
President, Alumni Association

We men and women
graduating from The City College of New York, do this day, after the manner of the Athenian youths of old about to enter public life
take this oath of devotion to the City of New York:

we will never bring disgrace to our city
by any act of dishonesty or cowardice
nor ever desert our suffering comrades in the ranks;

we will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the city
both alone and with many;

we will revere and obey the city’s laws,
and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence
in those about us who are prone to annul them
and set them at naught;

we will strive unceasingly to quicken the public’s sense of civic duty;

and thus, in all these ways, we will strive to transmit this city and not only not less but greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

Platform Party and Faculty have left the area.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Congratulations, Graduates!

Today, you join the storied generations who have since 1847 graduated from The City College of New York and moved on to make the world a better place. I know many of you as individuals, but on graduation day I can't help but think of you collectively, as the social phenomenon that every year leaves this campus poised to make its impact on society. You enter that society as unicorns: in a nation where upward social mobility is virtually non-existent, you have, by dint of your hard work and persistence, graduated from one of the last remaining producers of upwardly mobile Americans.

Vince Boudreau
President

Those of you who are the first in your families to graduate from college make a new world of education imaginable for younger siblings, cousins and future generations. Your children and grandchildren will grow up in the knowledge that an educated life, a life of security and prosperity, is within reach for them—and that may be an assurance that you did not yourself have. Bravo!

You have had the privilege of working alongside student colleagues from across the globe, but especially colleagues who were not, for the most part, born into privilege. Together as you interrogated the lessons you learned, I trust that you did so with an urgent sense of the necessity of your own experiences and your own perspective. We change the world on this campus by mobilizing the insights of the whole people into education, and in so doing, introducing perspectives, experiences, questions and demands that are often absent from the discourse that dominates our society.

As you move from our campus, I would like to urge upon you some final thoughts. Trust your education. Trust in the store of wisdom you gained on this campus. . You came to us exactly as young people have for decades—neither more nor less prepared or worthy of this place. You leave us now entirely fit to be the modern heirs of our legacy and the able stewards of our vision. We are proud of what you've been, and eagerly anticipate the discovery of what you will become. We are also grateful for the days that we shared together on this campus.

Understand also that over our time together, we have but planted a seed for what a better society, a better world would look like. We expect you to tend the garden of mutual respect, of civic responsibility, of a basic care for others wherever you go, and for the length of your days. Living up to these expectations will take courage and fortitude. It will mean honoring the history of this great institution by bringing your best self into the world each day, and falling back, when you need it, on the lessons we learned together. It will mean drawing on the tremendous reserves of tenacity that so many of you have displayed in merely getting into CCNY or in making it to this, your graduation day.

I give you this charge knowing how strong you can be and how smart you all are. I ask you to walk this path because I know you can, and for the sake of our society, I hope that you will. I ask you to do what generations of young people before you have done, every year, in this place and at this time. I ask you to move into the world as true sons and daughters of City College, and live lives that we will celebrate as reflecting our very highest values, our greatest expectations, and our fondest dreams.

With my warmest congratulations and deepest admiration,

Vince Boudreau
President

The City College of New York is proud to honor Joseph Fleischer with the degree, Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Bryan A. Stevenson
2023 Keynote Speaker/
Honorary Recipient

Bryan A. Stevenson grew up in an era of "informal segregation" in rural southern Delaware, witnessing firsthand the humiliations and deprivations visited upon Black Americans. He went on to graduate from Eastern College, magna cum laude, the Harvard University Kennedy School of Government and Harvard Law School.

In 1989, Stevenson founded the Equal Justice Institute, which provides legal representation to people who have been illegally convicted, unfairly sentenced, or abused in state jails and prisons. Since the EJI's founding, he and his staff have won reversals, relief, or release from prison, for more than 135 wrongly condemned prisoners on death row, and have won relief for hundreds of others wrongly convicted or unfairly sentenced.

Stevenson has garnered numerous awards for his work, including the MacArthur Fellowship ("Genius Grant") and the American Civil Liberties Union's National Medal of Liberty. He has received more than 40 honorary doctoral degrees, including those from some of the world's most prestigious universities.

The City College of New York is proud to honor Bryan Stevenson with the degree, Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

VALEDICTORIAN & SALUTATORIAN

Catherine Hernandez
2023 Valedictorian

Catherine Hernandez, CCNY's Class of 2023 Valedictorian, is an anthropology major in the William E. Macaulay Honors College. Hernandez proudly considers herself "a product of City College from the moment I was born," because of her alumnus father, Francisco Hernandez. "For both me and my father, CCNY has been a place that allows immigrants and first-generation Americans to not only succeed but have the agency and power to aid in tearing down the systems that oppress their communities," said Hernandez. "It's my honor to represent this legacy of social mobility and social justice." A participant in two overseas archaeological projects in Ecuador and Barbados as an undergraduate, Hernandez has developed a focused, activist-oriented research interest in Indigeneity, cultural patrimony, and repatriation. In her research and career, she hopes to implement community-based archaeological practices and to liaison with descendent communities to ensure that they have agency over the ownership of their patrimony and the portrayal of their heritage in the museum setting. At CCNY, Hernandez has participated in a number of fellowships, including the Colin Powell Fellowship in Leadership and Public Service, the Racial Justice Fellowship, and the Rockefeller Fellowship. She has also dedicated herself to the promotion of intersectional Feminist ideology as Co-President of the Macaulay Feminist Society NYC Collegiate Sexual Violence Prevention Changemaker. Currently, Hernandez is a Curatorial Intern at the MoMA PS1, an Education Intern at the Morgan Library and Museum, and a Program Facilitator for Art and Resistance through Education (ARTE). Next year, the Manhattan resident plans on taking a gap year to apply for Ph.D. programs in archaeology.

Kimberly Pereyra Moneró
2023 Salutatorian

CCNY's Class of 2023 Salutatorian, Kimberly Pereyra Moneró, is a Brooklyn resident who emigrated to the U.S. from the Dominican Republic at age 15. Mentors hail her academic excellence, civic-minded leadership and community involvement that make her truly representative of the best of CCNY. A dynamo at CCNY, she dedicated three of her four years as an undergrad volunteering for Youth Over Guns, a community organization that advocates against gun violence. There were also other internships, with the US Water Alliance, the Leadership Justice Center, and the New York City Public Advocate's Office. Pereyra Moneró was a Jeannette K. Watson Fellow (a three-year, citywide fellowship centered on public service), a Colin Powell Fellow, and a Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher, & Flom LLP and affiliates Legal Honors Scholar. She is the 2022–2023 recipient of The Daphne and Stuart Wells Public Service Scholarship and was a finalist this spring for a Harry S. Truman Scholarship. Pereyra Moneró has been working as a project assistant at The Leadership Justice Center for Democracy and Social Justice, an institute devoted to fostering the next generation of social justice leaders. She is also interning at VOCAL-NY as a legislative intern and is planning to attend law school.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK

This year The City College of New York celebrates the 175th anniversary of its founding. The need for an institution like The City College was recognized as early as 1847, when the State Legislature authorized a local referendum to determine whether a public college should be established in the City of New York; at the time, the city had a population of a half-million people and two private colleges, which had high tuition and only 247 pupils. The vote was overwhelmingly in favor of the proposition, and the Free Academy was established in a new building at Lexington Avenue and 23rd Street. The doors to its first entering class opened in January, 1849, and a class of seventeen young men graduated in 1853; with friends and family members, that first commencement was too large for the chapel at the Free Academy, so it was celebrated in Biblo's beer garden.

In 1866 the name of the Free Academy was changed by legislative act to The College of the City of New York. Since then, it has been called CCNY—an unofficial designation the College retained even after its name was again changed in 1929 to The City College. Students, alumni and friends call the College, simply, “City.” The college colors, lavender and black, were chosen by the student body in 1866. The beaver, symbol of intelligence, industry and determination, was voted to be the College's official athletics' mascot by a student-wide poll in 1934.

The governing body of the College, originally the Board of Education, was replaced in 1900 by a separate Board of Trustees appointed by the Mayor. In 1926, the Board of Higher Education was established to govern both City and Hunter College (founded in 1870), and subsequently the entire City University system, established in 1961. After primary responsibility for funding the University became that of New York State rather than New York City, an enlarged Board of Trustees, appointed by the Governor and the Mayor, assumed control in 1980.

The City College of New York, originally limited to undergraduate programs in classical and practical courses of study, has continually enlarged both the breadth and the depth of its offerings. Today it offers more than sixty undergraduate programs and majors and more than forty graduate programs, including PhD programs in six disciplines.

The City College moved to its present location in 1907, and now occupies a thirty-five acre Neo-Gothic and modern campus on historic St. Nicholas Heights. It is really a small university, with a College of Liberal Arts and Science and four professional schools—the Bernard and Anne Spitzer School of Architecture, the Grove School of Engineering, School of Education, and the CUNY School of Medicine (formerly the Sophie Davis School of Biomedical Education).

The City College is the nation's flagship institution of public higher education, predating the midwestern state and land-grant colleges by two decades. It is the number 2 college in the nation with the greatest success of ensuring the social mobility of our students. For more than 170 years it has been a primary avenue of advancement for generations of New Yorkers who might not have had the chance to attend college. Today it continues to fulfill the aim of its founder, Townsend Harris, who said: “Open the doors to all—Let the children of the rich and the poor take their seats together and know of no distinction save that of industry, good conduct and intellect.”

ABOUT COMMENCEMENT

The City College of New York, originally called The Free Academy, held its first Commencement in 1853 with a graduating class of 17. This year, we will celebrate the 170th graduating class, which corrects for how the College previously counted the number of graduations since 1847.

The Alma Mater

Lavender, My Lavender

Sturdy sons of City College,
Trusty hearts and mighty hands
Rally where your streaming banner
With its dauntless emblem stands.
Send a cheer to Heaven Ringing
Voicing in a fond acclaim
Faith and pride in Alma Mater
And her never dying fame.
Lavender, my Lavender!
Lavender, my Lavender!
On the field of life's endeavor
Bound by ties that naught can sever,
Hail we Alma Mater ever, Lavender, my Lavender!
Daughters wise of City College,
Join your voices in the song.
To the lusty cheers of brothers,
Add your effort clear and strong.
Send a hymn to Heaven Singing,
Filled with love and fond acclaim,
Faith and pride in Alma Mater
And her never dying fame
Lavender, my Lavender!
Lavender, my Lavender!
On the field of life's endeavor
Bound by ties that naught can sever,
Hail we Alma Mater ever,
Lavender, my Lavender!
