

6th Annual Research and Scholarship Day
Clinical Psychology @ City College of New York

A research agenda: Examining diversity, equity and inclusion

November 19, 2020
Online

- 8:30AM – 9:25AM      Infusing Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Throughout the CCNY Clinical Doctoral Program: A Longitudinal Research Perspective
Dr. Deidre Anglin will present on behalf of the DCSJ
- 9:25AM- 9:30AM      Research and Scholarship Day: Welcome
- 9:30 AM – 10:30 AM      Keynote: The Mental Health Consequences of COVID-19
Sandro Galea, MD, DrPH
Dean
Robert A Knox Professor
School of Public Health, Boston University
- 10:30 AM-10:40 AM      Break
- 10:40AM – 12:00PM      Panel: Social Determinants of Mental Health
Neil Allicock: Cannabis Use and Psychotic Experiences Among Emerging Adults of Color: The Role of Individual-level Inequity
Michael Tate: Child and Adolescent Perceptions of Racism and its Influence on Well-being Rachel Taylor: Identification of ADHD and Comorbid Disorders in Children: The potential role of minority group membership

Discussant: Belinda Carrasco, Ph.D.
Clinical Assistant Professor
New York University, Steinhardt
- 12:00PM – 12:15PM      Break (return with your lunch)
- 12:15 PM – 1:15PM      Lunch & Poster Session (Breakout rooms)