

8th Annual Research and Scholarship Day

Clinical Psychology @ City College of New York

Social Justice and Psychodynamic Perspectives on COVID, Psychopathology, and Treatment

November 15, 2022

Location: SH 107

- 8:45-9:00AM Welcome
- 9:00-10:20AM PANEL I: Advances in Psychopathology and Treatment Research
- Curtis Bogetti: Narcissism and Facets of Envy
- Tema Watstein: Therapeutic Considerations for the Polycule: A Qualitative Exploration of Consensual Non-Monogamy in Couples Treatment
- 10:20-10:30AM Break
- 10:30AM-12:00PM KEYNOTE: Casualties of Racism: Suicide Risk in Racially and Ethnically Minoritized Young Adults
- Lillian Polanco, Ph.D.
Tenure-track Assistant Professor
Director of the Mental Health Equity Lab
Department of Clinical Psychology, The New School
- 12:00-1:30PM Internship Lunch
- 1:30-2:30PM POSTER SESSION
- 2:30-3:45PM Panel II: Documenting Realities of COVID-19 Among An Urban Minoritized Population
- Anusha Kumar: The Ongoing Trauma of a Pandemic: A Mixed-Methods Study on the Relationship between COVID-19 and PTSD among Black and Latine Families
- Kat McNeal & Talia Schulder: Correlates of psychological outcomes during COVID-19
- 3:45-4:00PM Closing Remarks