

GHOST MOUNTAIN

Film Screening with Director Q&A

October 07 at 6:30 pm

Division of Interdisciplinary Studies
at the Center for Worker Education
25 Broadway, 7th Floor | Valid ID required

FREE
MUST RSVP

Ghost Mountain chronicles the journey of Bunseng Taing, the director's father, a Cambodian refugee who reached Connecticut in 1980 after surviving both the Killing Fields and a previously undocumented horror. Among the 45,000 refugees who sought safety in Thailand, he was forced back over the Cambodian border into an area heavily infested with landmines.

Film Director: James Taing

Co-Sponsored by:

THE FRANCES S. PATAI PROGRAM
IN HOLOCAUST, GENOCIDE, AND HUMAN RIGHTS STUDIES

Divisional Committee on Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility

The City College of New York

DIVISION OF INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES
AT THE CENTER FOR WORKER EDUCATION

In Collaboration with:

HUMAN RIGHTS
FORUM
AT THE CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK

Register at:

