

SPRING 2025

BRAZIL SEMINAR

(Readings and class discussions in English)

PORT 32200 M W 11:00am – 12:15pm

(Cross listed with INTL and LALS)

The Brazil Seminar is a practicum designed to discuss major cultural, economic, political, and social issues of contemporary Brazil through a combination of readings and presentations by guest speakers. Guest speakers will include leading scholars, as well as analysts, activists, business leaders, and public figures from Brazil or working with Brazil.

(3 cr. Pre-req. PORT 32100 or permission from Dr. Regina Castro McGowan - Dept. of Classical and Modern Languages and Literatures).