

Community-Centered Journalism in the Age of AI

Tuesday, Dec 3 2024, 5 PM | Zoom

How can we harness AI in journalism and media without losing humanity at its core? In this session, Jos Duncan-Asé draws from Love Now Media's community-centered initiatives to show how AI can uplift authentic voices and preserve empathy in storytelling. Join us to discover strategies for using technology to support impactful, people-first reporting in today's rapidly evolving media landscape.
